Project Title: APSAC Excellence Award Nomination Process

Anticipated problem to solve (in general): To streamline and make the nominating process as easy as possible for all persons involved (nominator, recommender, and evaluators). There is currently in place a very clunky, sometimes dysfunctional program being used for this process.

Project Description (500 words or so): Create a program/process online to submit nominations, recommendation letters, and a rating system for judging the APSAC Excellence Award.

Anticipated obstacles (if any):

Anticipated outcomes: An online application process for this award which includes a nomination, 2 letters of support, with automated emails to contacts. Also to include election process by committee members to evaluate nominees. This would include some type of rating system.
